

INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH AND TRAINING PROJECTS AWARDED ON POVERTY AND INCOME DISTRIBUTION

DESCRIPTION OF PROJECT	PRINCIPALS	COUNTRIES	SPONSOR	DATES
Pro-Poor Economic Growth Research Studies and Guidance Manual The objectives of this project was to undertake research designed to distinguish between policies, reforms and activities to promote pro-poor growth that are clearly soundly based, have been tested, command general acceptance and are suitable for USAID support and recommendations, and those that, while promising, do not fit the above criteria and should be discarded or will require further research. The team will also produce country and sector case studies, a guidance manual, and will carry out a dissemination effort to present the results of the research.	Gustav Papanek	WORLDWIDE	USAID	9/02 - 03/04
Study on Poverty Impact Assessment Analyze impact on the poor and other disadvantaged groups of the Indonesian economic crisis of 1997/1998. Recommend policies and programs to alleviate the disastrous effects of that crisis. Lessons from the Indonesian experience for crisis management in other Asian countries.	Gustav Papanek	INDONESIA	Asian Development Bank	1/98-2/98 10/01-9/02
Nicaragua Poverty Data for Regions I and IV Studied and reported the nature and characteristics of income levels and poverty, as well as to more precisely define the determinants of poverty.	Daniel Schydrowsky	NICARAGUA	USAID	1/95-3/95
Impact of Structural Reform on Poor in Asia Studying to what extent the policy changes agreed to under program loans can have negative effects on some low-income groups. The aim is to design policies and programs that will compensate, or mitigate, negative effects.	Gustav Papanek	BANGLADESH INDIA NEPAL PAKISTAN SRI LANKA	Asian Development Bank	5/93-9/94
Women and Work in Asia Co-directed comparative study of women's work and family strategies to cope with exogenous changes in employment and living conditions; collaborative team of thirty researchers in eight countries	Hanna Papanek	INDONESIA, INDIA, MALAYSIA, PHILIPPINES, BANGLADESH, SRI LANKA, THAILAND, NEPAL	U.N. University Rockefeller Smithsonian Ford Foundation	12/92